APPENDIX

Committee Charge:

Constitution of the General Faculty, art. V, sec. 3, par. D

D. Faculty Personnel Committee (FPC)

Membership: Four Faculty members consisting, at the time of election, of four tenured professors, including at least two full professors and at least one associate professor, with one elected each year for a four-year term. As a matter of practice, the committee member with the most consecutive years of service on this committee will be Chair.

Charges: The Faculty Personnel Committee shall study and make recommendations to the General Faculty, and where appropriate, on behalf of the General Faculty to the President and the Board of Trustees, on a wide range of Faculty-member employment and welfare issues including, but not limited to

- A. advising the President and Board of Trustees, through the Vice President for Academic Affairs, on the following matters, including but not limited to
 1. promotion
 2. tenure
 3. initial appointment and re-appointment
 4. release time
 5. sabbatical leaves and leaves of absence
 6. termination
 7. other Faculty-member personnel matters determined by the President;
- B. conducting Faculty elections for standing committees, and of Faculty-member representatives to administrative committees;
- C. overseeing all Faculty-member evaluation procedures, including the work of the Faculty Evaluation Panel;
- D. updating the Faculty Manual; and
- E. studying and making recommendations to the Faculty regarding compensation, benefits, workload, intellectual property, and the teaching and research environment.

Document Maintenance:

By practice, the FPC chair should update this document immediately after May elections as well as other times when the Committee membership changes. A PDF version of the updated document should be placed on the FPC Documents section of the Documents & Forms tab of the Inside server and in the FPC subdirectory on Server-Six.
