

OVERVIEW

While searching for classes, know how to read the results page to obtain the information you need.

DIAGRAM

VIEWING COURSE CATALOG INFORMATION

ACC 201 - Financial Accounting

(3 sem. hrs.) Introduction to the standards, concepts and generally accepted accounting principles for external financial reports. Emphasis on accounting reports as a means for providing financial information. (Fall and Spring) PREREQUISITES: Successful completion of one college level mathematics course and Sophomore standing. Students with ACC153, ACC253 will not receive additional credit for this course.

3.000 Credit hours
3.000 Lecture hours

Levels: Undergraduate

Schedule Types: Lecture Only

1. Conduct a class search
2. Click the desired section's CRN
3. Click "View Catalog Entry"

Here you can view:

- Course Description
- Semester(s) the course is offered
- Prerequisites

BUILDING CODES

- 67G = Honors House
- ADA = Adams Hall
- AIG = Aigler Alumni Building
- ART = Art Building
- BAR = Bareis Hall of Science
- BEE = Beeghly Library
- BRE = Brenneman Music Hall
- EDC = Lacey-Sheddenhelm Education Center

- FOU = Founders Hall
- GIL = Gillmor Hall
- MCC = Media Communication Center
- PFL = Pfeleiderer Center
- SAU = Saurwein Wellness Center
- SEI = Seiberling Gymnasium
- UNI = University Hall